RICE NURSING HIS MEN

Retired Amateur Champion at

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 3.—
Coach Rice of Columbia has practically decided on the makeup of his varsity crew. He was shy of material and simply boated the crew differently. Capt. Bratton has taken No. 6's seat, while D. W. Leys, who formerly held that position, is now stroking the varsity eight. The change seems to be very much for the better.

Doubles Had Townsend and Great Curtis. 7-5, 2-6, 6-4.

Rain caused a postponement of many of the scholastic baseball games scheduled for yesterday. Flushing and Fording but five hits in seven innings, or one finished the game. Gleason, Gays ham Prep did not play; neither did Stuyvesant and Hackensack, nor St. John's Prep and Manhattan Prep. The Clason Point M. A. and St. Augustine game also was cancelled.
